Thought for the Week

In the Carmelite convent the sisters always took a short mid-morning break from work. They would have fifteen minutes for a coffee in the refectory, and then return to their jobs. A number of younger sisters felt this was not a good use of their time; breaking their pattern of work in the morning seemed inefficient. Why not just get a coffee and take it back to your workplace? The prioress listened, and saw they had a point; and so the practice was changed, and each sister worked through, drinking her coffee at the same time.

That is until one day the prioress, spending the morning answering correspondence, found herself snatching sips of an increasingly lukewarm coffee, and trying to think about how to answer an especially tricky email. Suddenly she stopped. "What exactly am I doing here, Lord? Am I having a coffee? Or am I attending to this person's message?" In that moment she realised that the important, simple discipline of the Carmel—with its focus on being present to the task or conversation before you—was being undermined by this apparently harmless change in arrangements for a coffee break. The convent went back to its original pattern, newly aware of how precious it is to let each thing in life have its own proper space.

We live in a world that is not only unprecedently busy and filled with activity, but one that also prizes these things. Multitasking, working long hours, filling our schedules with activities—all these things are not only normal for many people, but things that are aspired to. Today's readings remind us that even when we are small, and crowded out, Jesus is present. The challenge is whether we can stop what we're doing long enough to find a way of putting ourselves in a more spacious place, a place where we can see the Lord and he can look directly at us. We can be certain that, when we do this, a deeper relationship with the Lord will follow. He wants to come into our homes and eat with us.

November—Month of the Holy Souls

Prayers for our Parishioners and Deceased loved one.
Please write the names of your loved ones on a slip of paper, and place it in the basket which is situated before the Altar. Do not insert money.

Blessing of Graves—next Sunday 10th November at 2.30 pm in Worting Road Cemetery.

This short service reminds us to honour the graves of our loved ones and to pray that their souls are now with the Lord sharing in His promise of eternal life. Where they have gone we hope to follow !!

Holy Ghost Church— Work to start on the heating and sound system on Monday. ALL MASSES transferred to St. Bede's Church for the week.

The Repository have a good supply of Christmas cards and other items on sale now.

Taizé Bells before Mass

I have noticed it is extremely noisy before the start of Mass, when we should all be quietly preparing ourselves for the Celebration of Mass.
Last week, you may have heard a chime of bells ring out over the PA system.

This is something I would like to have at each weekend Mass. When you hear the bell ring, it is a time to stop talking and all practice of music etc. to stop as the bell is our call to prayer. It lasts 2 minutes 17 sec, after which should be a period of complete silence to herald the start of Mass.

Fr. Chris

School Applications Forms

Due to the large volume of these forms, and as Fr. Chris is only new to the Parish, this task remains overwhelming. If you have a form, please leave it in the parish office where Fr. Chris will sign them with the help of the Parish Secretary for the next two weeks.

We are being asked to sign school admissions forms for St. Bede's School from parents who are at the same time requesting baptism for their child. This is unacceptable behaviour. The school admission form does require confirmation from the Priest that Sunday Mass attendance is either weekly or less often. This should ensure that places at our school are firstly filled by baptised and practicing Catholics—those for whom the school primarily exists.

Collections

Grateful thanks for last Sunday's offertory collection which amounted to £2,090.29p.
Second collection TODAY for Bamenda.

Mass Books, Hymns Books, Kneelers

To keep the church tidy. Please collect a Hymn and Mass book on arriving and return it to the book stands in the cloister area..... Also please try to put the kneeler back in its place !!

PENANCE and RECONCILIATION

May a priest later repeat something he has learned in confession?

No. Under no circumstances. The secrecy of the confessional is absolute. Any priest who would tell another person something he had learned in the confessional would be excommunicated. Even to the police, the priest cannot say or suggest anything.

There is hardly anything that priests take more seriously than the seal of the confessional. There are priests who have suffered torture for it and have gone to their deaths. Therefore, you can speak candidly and unreservedly to a priest and confide in him with great peace of mind, because his only job at that moment is to be entirely "the ear of God".

What are the positive effects of confession?

Confession reconciles the sinner with God and the Church.

The second after absolution is like a shower after playing sports, like the fresh air after a summer storm, like waking up on a sunlit summer morning, like the weightlessness of a diver Everything is contained in the word "reconciliation" (from a Latin verb meaning "to bring back together, to restore"): we are at peace with God again.
