Thought for the Week

In 1622 St Francis de Sales wrote, on the eve of the New Year, "So this year has disappeared into the abyss where all the others have gone. How desirable is eternity when we consider these miserable and fleeting changes! Let the time pass by as we little by little, run with it to be transformed into the glory of the children of God." It's an appropriate reflection for this first Sunday of Advent, when the Church begins her new Liturgical Year. It also points to one of the great realities of our life on earth: things come to be and things passing away.

Change—sometimes sudden and shocking change—is part of all our lives. How we cope with change is one of the things that indicate how mature we are, how well adjusted to the challenges of life. To paraphrase one poet, we have to learn when to care and when not to care, to let things go. St Augustine said that every change is a sort of death. So we need to learn how to deal with being in a semi-permanent sort of mourning, without losing our gift of enjoying the good things in life. Some changes can be traumatic and unexpected: the death of a loved one, natural disasters like tsunamis and earthquakes, the sudden onset of sickness or disability. In moments like these, it can feel as if our whole world is collapsing around us.

- Change is a major part of our lives; we have to cope with things coming to an end.
- Just as individual things come to an end, so one day the whole of creation will.
- Christ teaches us to live to enjoy the good things of this life, while being focused on the ultimate goal of eternity.

OUR PARISH'S FUTURE

This really is from Fr Chris!

The Diocese has once again employed the same American company they engaged for "Living Our Faith" some years ago, to head up "Our Parish's Future".

This is a Diocesan wide initiative in which we had to take part. Every initiative has its good points and bad points and if this campaign has offended anybody, then I am sorry. To be honest I had reservations about this campaign from the beginning.

Whilst it is un-British to talk about money, sometimes I need to bring these monetary matters to your attention for the good of the Parish. Thank you to those who were able to contribute and just as importantly thank you to those who give of their time and talents to our Parish, this is just as valuable.

We are better placed financially now, there is no doubt about that; and thanks to the census we have more volunteers coming forward who wish to help in the life of our Parish Community.

I wish to announce that our Parish's Future campaign is now concluding and there will not be anymore mail shots or letters.

(NB. The letters you received were written by the American company and they put my name to it).

Hopefully there will be one more newsletter item in the next week or two about how we have done.

In the New Year I want to look closely at our Church of Holy Ghost to find a way forward for repairs, redecoration and lighting. In short the Holy Ghost Church needs a bit of TLC. We should be in a good place too regarding the whole question of Evangelising and teaching our Youth. More in the New Year.

As we now move on into Advent, we look forward to Christmas and once again to the Saviour who was born for us in that lowly stable in Bethlehem. May all we do and think and say give Him glory!

We pray for a happy Advent, and a peaceful Christmas.

I thank you for your patience, your time, your talents, your gifts and prayers.

Fr Chris

ADVENT TALKS

There will be opportunities during Advent to reflect on some of the themes of the papal encyclical 'Laudato Si' : Care for our common home.

The papal encyclical offers us an opportunity to reflect on the world around us, and to respond to the signs of the times. We are called to reject the contemporary 'throwaway' culture and to open our eyes to see how God is present throughout creation.

We are planning two Groups in Hook, one will take place on Tuesday afternoons at 2.30 pm and the other will be on Thursday evenings at 7.00pm both for one hour, followed by refreshments. Both Groups will meet in the Parish Hall.

1. The climate is a common good. 1st & 3rd December
2. A universal family. 8th & 10th December
3. We were made for love. 5th & 17th December

Study booklets will be available and it is not necessary to purchase a copy of the full encyclical. However, if you would like a copy contact the Parish office (Tel: 577007)
