VOCATIONS

"The kingdom of God is like a mustard seed." Has Christ sown the seed of your vocation within you? Might it be to grow in holiness as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? Contact Fr. John Cooke on 01329 318 869 or email vocations@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk

PARISH OFFICE

Please note that the parish office will be closed from Monday 14th June and will reopen on Monday 21st June.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Jesus' second parable expresses a related truth about the kingdom. This time Jesus draws imagery from the prophet Ezekiel, who spoke of God's kingdom becoming like a mighty cedar towering above all others, offering protection and security to all peoples, represented by the birds of every kind which can rest in its shade. Jesus uses the example of the mustard seed to respond to those who question His vision of the future greatness of the kingdom. He is ushering in. Although the kingdom has only small beginnings - rooted in the life and ministry of one man, Jesus - just like the mustard seed, it has the potential of greatness within it and can become the biggest of all shrubs, able to offer welcome to all.

YEAR OF THE EUCHARIST

Last Sunday, on Corpus Christi, Bishop Philip inaugurated for our Diocese a Year of the Eucharist. It will run until Christmas 2022 and be supported by our current focus on St. Joseph. To listen to Bishop Philip read his Pastoral Letter and hear how we might keep a Year of the Eucharist go to our website.
